

General Rules, Regulations and Reminders

1. It is strongly recommended that you attend the state meeting in Monroe on March 16 and 17, 2012. If you cannot attend the state meeting, you must have a representative present, (parent, local director, etc) who can relay important information to you about the pageant. If you are not personally present, you will not be allowed to select your position in the line up even if you have a representative present.
2. The contestant who sells the most ad pages will be allowed to select their position in the competition order first. The person having raised the most funds for CMN will be allowed to choose their position second. Must have a completed packet which has been turned in on time to qualify for the number one or two selection. Remaining positions will be selected by lottery at the state meeting.
3. You will be issued a name badge at the state meeting and the state pageant. You must wear this name badge at all times when attending MLOT events, including rehearsals.
4. You must be on time for all events at the state meeting and during pageant week. The “show” will proceed without you.
5. You must be respectful to all pageant staff members, other contestants and your parents at all times during MLOT activities.
6. Contestants may not smoke or consume drugs or alcohol during MLOT activities.

7. All paperwork is due with by email or ground mail one week prior to the state meeting. These items must be emailed in the requested format. Please consult your checklist to make sure you are in compliance.
8. You must register for CMN fundraising at www.maoteen4kids.org. It is not mandatory that you raise funds although it is highly encouraged. A scholarship will be awarded if enough CMN funds are raised. It IS mandatory that you register. Remember to use 2012 as part of your name when you register...ex. Justine2012.
9. You must sell two pages of program book advertising. Follow instructions given in the ad packet. There is only one ad packet for all contestants and FDLs.
10. You must have at least one and not more than four Fleur de Lis Princesses.
11. You must register for the state meeting. The contestant does not have to buy a ticket but you must register. All others must purchase a ticket. Form will be on the website soon.
12. It is better to ask questions now and get your information in order, than wait until the night before it is due or the day of the state meeting. Email questions to misslateen@aol.com or call 337.304.5815. The sooner you ask your questions, the more help I will be able to give you.
